Our school is committed to not only eliminating discrimination, but also increasing understanding and appreciation for diversity.

Aims to eradicate discrimination

We believe that a greater level of success from pupils and staff can be achieved by realising the uniqueness of individuals. Creating an inclusive environment where individuals feel confident and at ease is a commitment of the school. This environment will be achieved by:

- Being respectful.
- Always treating all members of the school community fairly.
- Developing an understanding of diversity and inclusion and the benefits it can have.
- Adopting an inclusive attitude and ensuring that the whole school community understands what inclusive behaviour looks like in the school and how this aligns with the school's values.
- Adopting an inclusive curriculum that is accessible to all.
- Encouraging compassion and open-mindedness.
- Challenging bias and calling it out in order to move the conversation forward.

We are committed to having a balanced, diverse and fair curriculum. We believe that our pupils should be exposed to ideas and concepts that may challenge their understanding, to help ensure that pupils learn to become more accepting and inclusive of others. Challenging and controversial concepts will be delivered in a way that prevents discrimination and promotes inclusive attitudes.

We do not tolerate any form of prejudice-related incident. Whether direct or indirect, we treat discrimination against all members of our school with the utmost severity. Diversity and representation

The school uses the No Outsiders scheme of work and lesson plans where picture books are used to help children understand the diverse community we live in. This resource aims to bring children and parents on board so that children leave Crowton happy and excited about living in a community full of difference and diversity. Teaching staff have all received training on how to use the books effectively and sensitively. The school also uses SUMO (Stop, Understand and Move On) which is a scheme based on being fair, community spirited and compassionate, these themes are delivered in Collective Worship to help children understand the importance of being kind and considerate to all.

Closing statement

Prejudice is not tolerated and we are continuously working towards a more accepting and respectful environment for our school community.
