22nd January 2017

Dear parents,

Hindu Visitor- Thursday 25th January

This week, all children in KS1 and KS2 will participate in a Hindu Pushpanjali Dance workshop. The workshop is designed to expand childrens knowledge about the religion of Hinduism through dance, storytelling and drama. The workshop will cover the basics of the religion and discuss Hindu traditions and tales.

Children do not need to wear any different clothing on the day - full school uniform as normal. The workshop will take place at school between 9.00am -3.00pm. There will be no cost to parents as the worksop is funded by the Friends Of Crowton School.

If you would not like your child/ren to take part in the workshop activities, please let me know before Thursday. Please feel free to email, telephone or call into school to discuss any questions or queries that you may have about the workshop.

Kind regards,

K Russon
Class 4 teacher
